

HYNES

COMMUNICATIONS

Hynes Communications is a nimble, multi-disciplinary agency built to develop and deliver messages to key influencers, opinion leaders, and decision makers.

For twenty years, president Patrick Hynes has crafted messages and streamlined advocacy channels for top-shelf industry, government relations, and political clients. As a columnist for New Hampshire's only statewide newspaper, he is an opinion leader himself.

Hynes can help

Writing Services. The Hynes writing team offers a full array of ghostwriting support, from Op-Eds to reports to speeches.

Digital Design and Advertising. Hynes designs digital assets for federal, state, and multi-state advocacy campaigns. We're smaller, more agile and less expensive than the competition.

Social Media Management. Hynes manages dozens of social media properties for a variety of clients.

New England Grassroots and Grasstops. With a strong base in New Hampshire and partnerships throughout New England, Hynes leads multi-state efforts across the region.

Coalition Development and Management. Possessing unique relationships with third-party groups in Washington, D.C. and state capitals across the country, Hynes builds winning coalitions for its clients.

Public Relations. At its core, Hynes is a public relations firm. We pitch powerful and compelling stories to credible news sources daily. Nationwide or niche, we have the media relationships to tell your story.

Let's explore how our team can complement your team.
